

Classic look ... new feel.

The foundation of the Bullard head protection product line now provides even more comfort to workers. Our Classic hard hats and caps have always offered superior protection from the weather, more airflow for a cooler feel and a customizable fit. Now, workers will find enhancements, including:

Identifying your model of Bullard Classic hat or cap:

Improvements to the suspensions in the Classic Series hard hats and caps have made them more comfortable. However, suspensions and replacement brow pads are not interchangeable between the old and new models. The charts below and on the back will help you identify and order the appropriate replacement suspensions and brow pad for your hat or cap.
